

Award Description

AgriBiz has a long history of volunteering in our home community and serving on agricultural boards and committees. We value the opportunity to give back and foster a better future for coming generations and we take every opportunity to promote the thriving food industry in our province. In celebration of more than 25 years serving the food and farming industries, we are offering The Extra Mile Award to women in the agriculture industry who have made noteworthy contributions to their communities while inspiring support for Saskatchewan's agriculture and food systems.

This annual award will recognize a female individual each year who has gone 'the extra mile' in the following areas:

2018

Mentorship and Leadership

2019

Events and Initiatives

2020

Advocacy and Engagement

2019 Events and Initiatives

The recipient is a woman who has volunteered her time to organized or managed events or initiatives in her community that promoted agriculture and brought farmers and consumers together. The events can be small or large in scale and annual or stand-alone in nature while initiatives can be singular or ongoing.

All nominee's efforts will have had a positive impact on their communities and played a measurable part in inspiring support for the agriculture industry and fostering conversations about the food we grow.

Award Value: $1000 PER YEAR

The award will be donated to a registered charity or community initiative of the winners choosing.
